Government Legislation requires all schools to publish the SEN Information Report / Local Offer (clause 65 of the Children’s Act). This report is co-produced by the Headteacher, Governor’s and parents. It is a lengthy document and its aim is to outline the provision that the school provides for children with SEND.

School to provide a general statement about what the school provides in box below

General Statement - Blessed Hugh Faringdon Catholic School is an inclusive school where every child is valued and respected. We are committed to the inclusion, progress and independence of all our students, including those with special educational needs and disabilities. As outlined in our Accessibility Plan, we are continually seeking ways to ensure that students with SEND can participate fully in our broad curriculum and can also take advantage of the education, benefits, facilities and services we offer.

We work to support our students to make progress in their learning, their emotional and social development, and their independence. We aim to create a learning environment, which is of high quality, and actively supports the learning and needs of all members of our community. In line with our principles of equity for all, we aim to ensure that the same information and opportunities are made accessible to students with SEND as are readily accessible to students without SEND. Blessed Hugh Faringdon Catholic School has a Learning Support Area which is made up of the SENDCO, the Assistant LSA Manager, a Literacy Teaching Assistant, access to a shared SEND teacher and HLTA (shared with the BMW Centre) and a team of Teaching Assistants who deliver a range of interventions including social skills and occupational therapy techniques. Students attend mainstream lessons to access subject specialist teaching.

In addition to the Learning Support Area, in the main building, we have a specialist purpose-built Autism Resource called The Blessed Mary Ward Centre. The Resource has its own Head of Department who is a qualified teacher, an Assistant Manager, access to the shared SEND Teacher and HLTA alongside a team of Teaching Assistants. The students overseen by the Blessed Mary Ward Centre all have an Education, Health and Care Plan with a primary diagnosis of Autism. The students are supported to access mainstream lessons at Blessed Hugh Faringdon Catholic School. No academic subject teaching takes place in the resource. The students also have the opportunity to take part in social skills, emotional literacy, life skills, baking and cooking sessions and horticulture lessons.

Regulations		School Response
1	The kinds of special educational needs for which provision is	Do you have children with SEND in your school?	Blessed Hugh Faringdon Catholic School provides for a range of special educational needs, these include: Communication and Interaction; Cognition and Learning; Social, Emotional and Mental Health difficulties and Sensory or Physical difficulties.

			regularly discuss any concerns we have if a student is not making expected progress. When a student is not making the expected progress in a particular area of learning, the school will discuss this with the student and parent/carer. The need for additional support within the bounds of funding, may be identified. Letters are sent home to ensure parents/guardians know that extra support is being put in place. If parents/carers of SEND students have concerns about the progress or attainment of their child they should, in the first instance, make an appointment to speak to the SENDCO or Head of the Autism Resource to discuss their concerns. A student themselves may share they are experiencing difficulties; this will be explored in the same way as it would if a staff member or parent or carer raised a concern about the child. If a child has an Education Health and Care Plan (EHCP), their parents/carers will have the opportunity to celebrate achievements or discuss concerns with the SENDCO or with the Head of the Resource if their child's provision is overseen by the Blessed Mary Ward Centre. Education, Health and Care Plans are reviewed annually and, in addition to this, parents are able to discuss their child's progress towards outcomes on a termly basis. The interim assessment results are conveyed to parents by phone or email as appropriate. Internal records are kept.
3.	Information about the school's policies for making provision for students with SEND whether	Where can I find information about the school SEN Policy?	The school prides itself on ensuring students with SEND are not treated any less favourably than any other students. Equity is at the heart of our Catholic school ethos. We regularly review participation and progress across a range of areas and we champion SEND with staff and fellow or not students have EHC plans		students through CPD, assemblies and the PSHE and RSE curricula. The school SEND policy and the SEND information report can be found on the school website.

3a.	How the school evaluates the effectiveness of its provision for such students	How do you make sure that the SEN provision is helping students make better progress? How do you check other outcomes for children with SEND, such as independence and well-being?	The progress of all students including those with SEND is tracked and monitored by subject teachers and Heads of Department throughout the year. Achievement data is collected each term and is analysed and moderated by subject departments. Subject department teams work together to adapt provision to meet the needs of all students. Heads of Department and Heads of Year meet with the SENDCO or Head of the Autism Resource to discuss any concerns they have about students with SEND. For students with additional needs, a range of interventions to support academic progress, social skills and emotional wellbeing may be put in place. Interventions are tracked, monitored, and reviewed as needed. The outcomes are communicated to staff and parents/carers.
3b.	The school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress of students with special educational needs	How do you check and review the progress made by students with SEN? How will I find out about the progress my child is making? How will I be involved in those reviews? Who else will be there?	Progress is communicated to parents and carers through written reports which are sent home three times a year. In addition, parents and carers are invited to attend Parents' Evening once a year. The outcomes for students with an EHCP are formally reviewed annually. The student, their parents/carers and any other professional involved with their provision are invited to contribute a report and to attend the Annual Review.
3c	The school's approach to teaching	How do your teachers help students with	Scaffolding and adjustments to meet individual needs is embedded in our curriculum and practice. All teachers

	students with SEND	learning difficulties or disabilities to learn? How can I find out more about what my child is learning at the moment?	are able to access information outlining the needs of individual students so that they can plan lessons appropriately. As part of our whole school and group continued professional development (CPD) programme, training on effective provision for students with SEND is delivered. This theme will continue to be core to our involvement in the Tom Sherrington Project. In addition, the opportunity to meet with the SENDCO and Head of the Autism Resource, peer observe good practice, debrief and apply these strategies with support is actively encouraged, as required, to build capacity overall. Curriculum Booklets are available for each year group which outline the programmes of study for each term. These can be accessed on the school website. Hard copies are available on request via the school office.
3d	How the school adapts the curriculum and learning environment for students with SEND	How have you made the school buildings and site safe and welcoming for students with SEN or disabilities? How will the curriculum be matched to my child's needs?	The school building has increased its accessibility to include a ramped entrance and disabled toilet. As the school is set over three floors, it is not fully accessible. Any specialist equipment is provided according to identified specific individual need. Support is in place to help students access the curriculum and this includes the provision of certain option choices. At present, some students in KS4 have the option of taking an ASDAN course which takes a practical approach and develops skills for learning, work and life. The range of BTEC courses has been expanded and options to complete the Entry Level Certificate, I Science, are available where the need arises. In addition, where English Maths are a challenge, alternative courses are provided. Additional provision such as literacy interventions and social and emotional interventions may be put in place to meet the needs of students.

3e	Additional support for learning that is available to students with SEND	Is there additional support available to help students with SEND with their learning? How are the school's resources allocated and matched to children's special educational needs? How will I know if my child is getting extra support? How is the decision made about how much/what support my child will receive?	Additional support is based on the needs of the student. Support includes individual student profiles outlining a student's needs and strategies to support them to inform classroom practice. It also includes withdrawal for literacy or social and emotional interventions, in class support from Teaching Assistants, Pastoral Support, Mentoring and support and interventions from Outside Agencies. Parents are informed if a student is benefitting from additional interventions. They are also informed of the impact of the intervention. The provision of additional support is based on a range of factors, these include data from testing, outcomes of assessments and concerns raised by the student themselves, their parents/carers or teachers. The provision of additional support is tracked and monitored and adjusted according to the ongoing need of the student and progress made. Students who have an EHCP will have provision outlined within it to ensure that the outcomes can be met. Outcomes and provision are formally evaluated during the Annual Review process.
3f	Activities that are available for students with SEND in addition to those available in accordance with the curriculum	What social and extra-curricular activities are available for students with SEND? How can my child and I find out about these activities? How will my child be included in activities outside	We encourage all students to take part in extra-curricular activities. Parents/carers are informed of these by letter. All students are encouraged and supported to attend residential and non-residential school trips. All reasonable adjustments are made to accommodate the needs of individual students.

		the classroom, including school trips?
3g	Support that is available for improving the emotional and social development of students with SEND	What support will there be for my child's overall well-being?	The Catholic Ethos of the school is embedded in all aspects of school life. All students are supported with their social and emotional development through the curriculum which includes PSHE. Students overseen by the Autism Resource are supported by the dedicated team to access the content of the topics covered. Students are also supported by our KS3 and KS4 Pastoral and Achievement Co-ordinators. We are part of the local Mental Health Support Team and benefit from a range of options to support mental health and well-being from our Mental Health First Aiders, through Education Mental Health Practitioners, our Counsellors and the Educational Psychologist and the Child Protection Team. As part of this, we have regular Mental Health Surgeries. In addition, the school benefits from the skills of 6 trained Emotional Support Assistants (ELSAs). Mentors are available for students who are identified as needing a familiar adult to meet with on a regular basis. KS4 and KS5 Peer Supporters are trained by our School Counsellor to support younger students. Students are also referred to appropriate support services if they are identified as having an additional need beyond the remit of the school.
4.	In relation to mainstream schools, the name and contact details of the SEN Co-ordinator	Who should I contact if I want to find out more about how the school supports students with SEND? What should I do if I think my child	Parents/carers are encouraged to contact the school's SENDCO: Ms Nicholle Lennon n.lennon@hughfaringdon.org Parents/carers are also welcomed to contact the Head of the Autism Resource if their child's provision is overseen by the Resource: Miss Lisa Boorman
