

School of Rock

Blessed Hugh Faringdon Presents

Andrew Lloyd Webber's

School of Rock

We cordially invite you to witness the magic of theatre, with our incredible performance of 'School of Rock'. Students have been pouring their heart and soul into rehearsals, and we are delighted share with you their hard work. The musical promises to be an evening filled with energy, passion, Rock 'n' Roll and unforgettable music. Your support means the world to us and to the dedicated students who have devoted countless hours to perfecting their roles. By attending the musical, you not only celebrate their achievements but also encourage them to continue pursuing their passions and honing their talents.

Performance Night Details:

Date: Thursday 21 March and Friday 22 March 2024

Time: 6:30pm doors will open and 7pm the show will begin.

Ticket Price: £5 per ticket

To secure your tickets, please visit Parent Pay and complete the details online. Tickets are priced at £5 each. You will receive confirmation of your purchase via parent pay and your tickets will be available to collect by students the week before the show (or on the door).

On the night there will be programmes available to purchase, a selection of interval refreshments, and a collection at the end of the performance to support the school's charities.

We anticipate a wonderful turnout and assure you that your presence will greatly enhance the joy and excitement of the event. Let's come together as a community to applaud the creativity and dedication of our young performers! Thank you for your continued support of our school's arts programmes. We look forward to seeing you at the School of Rock musical and sharing an unforgettable evening of entertainment.
