US Politics

This is an exciting year to be studying US Politics as we head towards the Presidential Election in 2024!

If you have chosen this subject then you presumably have an interest in the goings-on in Washington. It will be helpful for you to familiarise yourself with the key people and events in current US Politics by reading/watching/listening to news and analysis. Some recommended places (with a range of political bias so read CRITICALLY!) to start are:

BBC News: US politics - BBC News

The New York Times: The New York Times - Breaking News, US News, World News and Videos \(nytimes.com\)

The Washington Post: The Washington Post - Breaking news and latest headlines, U.S. news, world news, and video - The Washington Post

National Review: National Review: Conservative News, Opinion, Politics, Policy, & Current Events

Fox News: Politics | Fox News
